C.V. GOPINATH - PROFILE

“He weaves a tapestry of ethereal beauty and embraces his audience in the eternal spirit of India. At every step in the Audio-Visual Pilgrimage with Shri.C.V.Gopinath, we find the truth; the good, the beautiful and the splendor created by the Man and Nature.Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru’s Discovery of India left a lasting impression on my generation. The Audio-Visual presentation on “Pilgrimage to Kailas and Manassarovar” of C.V.Gopinath is somewhat like Panditji’s Discovery of India”.

–Late - Dr.L.M.Singhvi,Eminent Jurist and Formerly Indian High Commissioner to U.K.

C. V. Gopinath is a versatile genius and an Erudite Vedic Scholar, and is well known among many children as GURU who teaches recitations from the Bhagavad Gita and GURU who teaches the Vedas for the bureaucrats, doctors, engineers and others who walk alongside him in the Lodi Gardens, Delhi. He is the Pandit who interprets scriptures and presides over Vedic rituals.. On the spiritual platforms in esteemed institutions like Ramakrishna Mission, Chinmaya Mission and Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan he keeps his audience spell bound .In Management Institutions that includes IIT’s he is a Management Guru to espouse Managerial ethos as enunciated in the ancient scriptures. His profundity of scriptural knowledge that links to identify common message in Christianity, Jainism, Buddhism, Sikhism and Islam vis-à-vis Hinduism makes Shri C. V. Gopinath a secularist to the core.

He learnt very early in his childhood Vedic recitations from his father who was himself a great Scholar of the Vedas, the Upanishads and the rich ancient Hindu scriptures. Later he studied Vedic interpretations for 24 years at Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan

A keen debater from his School and College days Gopinath cultivated excellent communication skills which resulted in the making of his highly acclaimed heritage documentary films:-A Pilgrimage to Kailasa and Manasasarovar (inEnglish/Hindi/Kannada/Telugu) ,Amarnath – The God of Immortality (in English/Hindi /Kannada),Cosmic Rhythms in Divine Abodes (in Sanskrit). Ksheer Bhawani(in English /Hindi) and Shruti-Smrut(Oral Tradition of India)

His high quality oratory in lectures given on Management subjects in scores of highly reputed Management Institutes in the country have earned Shri Gopinath ji an esteemed status as a Guest Faculty. Their captions themselves reveal the extraordinary nature of the contents of his lectures, like: - (i) Leadership Qualities through Indian Scriptures, (ii) Managerial Strategies vis-à-vis Ancient Wisdom, (iii) Business and Dharma,(iv)Impact of Globalization on Culture,(v)Industrial Relations vis-à-vis Indian Values (vi)Discerning the Philosophy of Sound in OM- A Vedic and an Engineering Interpretation,(vii)Spiritual Power in bringing excellence in Administration,(viii)Raja Dharma i.e. Governance in Mahabharat and its relevance to day(ix)Conflict resolution through Bhagavad-Gita for Middle East peace He is a linguist and can fluently communicate in Kannada, Telugu, Hindi, Gujarati, Marathi, Bengali and Malayalam. His proficiency in Sanskrit and English have enabled him to delve deep to imbibe the profound knowledge of the Vedas, the Upanishads and the various Schools of the ancient Hindu Philosophy.

His silent efforts to sustain the Indian culture aim at imparting the traditional knowledge at the grassroots. For the house-holders and commoners he deals with the practical aspects of Karma-Yoga, for managers, the finer and exalted foundations as enunciated in Indian scriptures and on seminar platforms he fathoms out the profound knowledge of Indian Philosophy. He is at ease with the Jainagranthas, the Boudhagranthas and the Gurugranth.

The LIVE PERFORMANCES that give Sri Gopinath a distinct niche as an icon

All the above great achievements of Sri Gopinath pale into insignificance when compared to the live performances that Sri Gopinath gives specially on the subject of “HIMALAYAS IN VEDIC CONCEPTS” when he casts his spell on the audience in the 120 minute audio-visual shows. For the thousands of people who have attended even one of the over 1000 shows that he has already held not only in various cities of the country, but even in foreign lands like U.K., U.S.A., Israel, Mauritius, Abudabhi, Dubai, Sharjah, Bahrain and Nepal, his shows assume a once in a life-time experience.

They are not just shows. They are not just performances. They are experiences, where the viewer is catapulted in the realm of the Supreme Being. Where the viewer experiences the bliss of dwelling in his own being for the duration of the show, because the celestial representations of the Divine Beauties of the Himalayas and the first hand experience of Divinity itself comes alive through the resonant voice in which Sri Gopinath chants the Vedic Mantras of the Upanishads to blend with the scene one beholds through the numerous slides that are projected by him.

The audience sit spellbound, and those who have had the fortune of witnessing this experience have seen the mesmerizing effect that the show produces, in that, it takes a while before the audience descends on Earth and gives him a standing ovation. Dr. L.M. Singhvi, former Indian High Commissioner to U.K. after attending the show burst in to applause and said “The show is somewhat like Nehru’s Discovery of India to me”. While the Asstt. Resident Representative (Programmes), UNDP, India, Shri. Bharat Vyas’s words, “Although we spent the time inside a dark room, it was possible to feel a strange light beginning to glimmer inside the inner self...” stand as a testimony to where Gopinath can take the audience to. Others who attended these show include Honb’le Governors, Supreme Court Judges, Election Commissioners, Ministers, Scientists, Artists, Bureaucrats, Top level Managers, Engineers, University Professors Students of schools and colleges, mundane people and Ashramvasis.

To sum up Shri. C.V. Gopinath, with an engineering degree in telecommunications and a post graduate degree in management, is true Ambassador of ancient Vedic culture, with the profound, but practical aspects of Vedic and Upanishad concepts, a Guru (Vedic Teacher) to children and elders alike, a dedicated social worker, a film maker of heritage documentaries, a multi linguist, an expert in management and engineering. C.V. Gopinath is a person blended with deep roots in tradition and commitment to society yet one who strides the vistas of the modernity

Some impressions of eminent persons.

1. “Shri C.V. Gopinath, with his erudite scholarship and devotion to revive roots of our great cultural heritage is a natural cultural Ambassador of Karnataka.” – T.N. Chaturvedi, Governor, Karnataka.
2. “Although we spent the time inside a dark room, it was possible to feel a strange light beginning to glimmer inside the inner self...our deep gratitude to you for enabling us to undergo such a moving and enlightening experience.” –Bharat Vyas, Asstt. Resident Representative (Programme), UNDP, India.
3. “The Audio-Visual presentation on “Pilgrimage to Kailas and Manassarovar” of C.V.Gopinath is somewhat like Panditji’s Discovery of India”.
- Dr.L.M.Singhvi, Eminent Jurist and Former Indian High Commissioner to U.K.
4. “Shri C.V. Gopinath’s audio-visual presentation on Himalayas in Vedic Concepts is something very rare to see. The spiritual fervour that he creates and above all his passion to tell people about Hiamalays and its vedic culture are very impressive. His narration and interluding references to Karnataka Culture and the vedic practices and its roots in Karnataka should make one proud that he belongs to State of Karnataka, though he has been a resident of Delhi for more than two decades.” – Tarun Gogoi, Chief Minister, Assam.
5. “His knowledge of philosophy and vedic traditions in the course of his presentation was indeed very very impressive. He has a passion to project our cultural roots to common man, through his simple narrations.” – T.S. Krishna Murthy, Chief Election Commissioner of India.
6. “Gita and I were immensely impressed by your excellent audio visual presentation on the Yatra to Manasasarovar in the Chinmaya Mission Auditorium, New Delhi. Your recitation of the Sanskrit shlokas as well as the perfect timing of your commentary with the visuals was superb.” – N. Vittal, Central Vigilance Commissioner.
7. “I had the privilege of viewing the video cassettes of Shri Gopinath’s Pilgrimage to Kailash Parbat. Throughout the viewing, we forgot the world around us and were so engrossed that we did not know when the time passed. It was an elevating experience and we hope and it had lasted longer.” – Justice P.B. Sawant, Chairman Press Council of India.
8. “Shri Gopinath’s lucid commentary and his own impressive and chaste Vedic recitations from the background of the presentation which also contains excellent musical rendering taken from greqat devotional texts. In fact this will deeply impress even those who are interested in knowing the natural grandeur of Kailash & Manasarovar. On the whole, one sits deeply engrossed if not spell bound throughout the presentation, which lasts for 90-100 minutes... I hope he will bring out many more such presentations on other great centers of Indian Spiritual Heritage.” – Swami Gokulananda, Secretary, Ramakrishna Mission, Delhi.

9. “As a man, Shri Gopinath is devoid of many weaknesses which beset human mind and with his honest and upright devotion to promote traditional Indian values, I am sure he shall always bring dignity to all those who may come in his contact and as well earn him their respect.” – Bhure Lal, Secretary (Co-ord. & Plg.), Cabinet Secretariat.

10. “In today’s information rich society, there are many onslaughts of visual and audio information, but harnessing of different media in a manner to generate a completely new kind of experience in the audience was something which only a maestro like Mr. Gopinath could together. It is remarkable that the audience which constituted largely of restless teenagers, whose span of attention does not usually exceed a few minutes, was held spell bound for over 2 hours.” – M.M. Pant, Executive Director, Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies.

11. “Shri Gopinath’s zeal and dedication in endeavouring to inform the public at large in respect of the country’s great cultural heritage and his commitment towards imparting the teachings of the holy Bhagwad Gita and Vedic recitations, in organizing Sanskrit conversational classes, as also his innovative communication skills in making Documentary Films, especially from Vedic perspective can essentially be understood through interaction with him. Shri Gopinath’s Lecture series on Globalization and Culture, Discerning the Philosophy of Sound through Omkar, Fighting Terrorism through Dharma, Krishna in Mahabharata and Managerial Strategies vis-à-vis Ancient Wisdom have also been highly acclaimed by respected personalities both National and International.” – Aurn Bhatnagar, Secretary, Ministry of Consumer Affairs.

12. “I have heard many tales of adventure and participated in several myself, but sitting through a presentation by Shri Gopinath on the Kailash-Mansarovar Yatra was an unparalleled experience.... The Brilliance by which Shri Gopinath interspersed was remarkable. He described Kuber’s wealth being actually under the control of Sanyasi like Shiva, he was conveying very important value of unattachment, and unselfishness.” – Dr. S.C. Vats, M.L.A. & Chairman, Strength India Education Society, New Delhi

13. “The members of the Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, Mysore Kendra were fortunate in witnessing the slide show on Kailasa and Manasasarovar given by you on 6th November 2000..... The programme at the Institute of Engineers arranged by the Bhavan drew a huge crowd and people who could not get entry were seen standing outside near the windows and doors. This is unprecedented for a religious cum spiritual lecture” Prof. A.V. Narasimha Murthy, Chairman, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, Mysore Kendra.

14. “It was indeed thought provoking, educative and enlightening. We are benefited by your lecture immensely”. – S.L. Goyal, President, Faridabad Chamber of Commerce & Industry.

15. "I was really obliged for your wonderful presentation on "Journey to Mt. Kailash & Manasarovar" on the auspicious occasion of Shri Krishna Janamashtami on 31st August 2002..... A number of organizations have approached me for holding such function. I have told them to contact you on this subject and I hope some of them may be contacting you in due course of time." – Bhuvan Mohan, Secretary, Shri Banarsidas Chandiwalla Sewa Smarak Trust Society.

16. "The Himalayas were just a snowy mountain range for me. But you have made me understand the real meaning of it. I find myself nearer to God very happy and elated inside. I can never thank you enough but I will always pray for the well being of your family." – Chitra Talwar, Faculty, Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies.

17. "We were in a spiritual journey for two hours and what a way to project Indian Culture." – Dr. G.G. Mansharamani, Chairman, Scientific Committee, International Medical Sciences Academy.

18. "On behalf of Parampujya gurudev Swami Ved Swaroopanandaji Saraswati, I am privileged to convey the happiness of Swamiji on your Audio-visual presentation of 'Mansarovar Yatra' which you made in an atmosphere of surcharged spirituality to the Bhaktas who, with rapt attention, tried to absorb each and everything you showed or recited at our Ashram in connection with the celebration of 1st Ram Nawmi of 21st Century. Intoxicated with darshan of Mansarovar and Kailash, we all spent a few of the most valuable hours of our life, so far. The presentation was excellent and we shall ever cherish the great evening of divine scenes and enchanting Vedic hymns." – S.J. Raina, Executive President, Shri Manav Shanti Peeth, Faridabad.

19. "Why did you dare such physical hazards to climb Mount Everest?" "Because it's there!" answered the simple Sherpa Tensing Norkhay, the Everest hero. True, heights do attract us. But what about the steps thereunto? It is given to the methodical daredevils to achieve the heights they have set for themselves. One such "daredevil" is our dear Kannadiga C.V. Gopinath.... Gopinath is both obsessed with and possessed by Kailas-Manasasarovar, Amarnath and such other centers of pilgrimages in the Himalayas, the metaphysical content in the Vedas etc. In the slide shows with running impromptu explanation he gives, one is taken to those ethereal heights even while comfortably tucked to one's chair. "Every time, I witness these shows or see the CDs I become a new person full of hope to face the trivials of life". – G.T. Narayana Rao, Astrophysicist and Writer.

20 "It was great pleasure to have you here with us with your team. Your presentation was simply excellent and I think we all felt that we are right in the lap of the great Himalayas protected by 'Lord Shiva'. It is not only the Mountains, snow and the streams and the beautiful photographs of the Lake Manasasarover and Kailash, it is a journey into the ethereal. With your slokas you have transformed it all into a spiritual experience." – Padmashree J.N. Kaul, President, SOS Childrens' Villages of India.

21. "I have seen a number of films on Kailash and Manasarvar but the one done by you is the best even on seeing a small part of it. As I became occupied with Respected Swami Gahanandandaji, I could see the total film. I believe it is being shown again in Ramakrishna Mission, Delhi I will be looking forward to see the entire film". – L.N. Jhunjhunwala, Chairman-Emertius, LNJ Bhilwara Group.

22. "Your mastery over scriptures is truly remarkable. All in all, it was an forgettable experience for all those who had gathered to hear you. Your lecture was the talk of the town. Even today, people are remembering that unforgettable evening. I am sure you will continue to regale eager crowds whenever you go with your impressive talk" – N.P. Bhat, President, Avani Rasikar Ranga, Dharwad.

23. "In my view, Shri C.V. Gopinath is a genius with numerous facets..... His transparent personality reflects his impeccable integrity. He is a true Karam Yogi. He is one of those who firmly believe that the preciousness of the values gets enhanced in proportion to which one pays for abiding them. When one gets acquainted to his scholastic stature, one feels surprised that he also works as Deputy Director General in the Department of Telecommunications". – B.P. Singhal, M.P. Rajya Sabha & Former D.G. Police, Bombay.

24. "They should be proud that they have among them an officer, with interests profound and not routine." – Dr. T.H. Chowdary, I.T. Adviser to the Govt. of Andhra Pradesh & Chairman, Bharatiya Vidya Bhawan, Hyderabad.

25. "The two hours I spent in Bharatiya Vidya Bhavans Auditorium was memorable. It was my privilege to shed tears of bliss after witnessing the show of Shri C.V. Gopinath." – Kusuma Rao, Art Critic, Bangalore.

26. "It is really a wonderful experience listening to the Veda Mantras with the natural beauty of Himalayas in background." – Sompal, Member Planning Commission of India.

27. "Let me tell you, I had severe pain in the back. I was thinking while leaving my home that if it is too much, I will leave the programme in between. But when the show began, I forgot everything and sat till the end with abated breath" – Padmashree D.N. Malhotra, Chairman, Hind Pocket Books

28. "I never realized that you were so good at the documentation work." – Sudha Murty, Chairperson, Infosys Foundations, Bangalore.

29. "I wish Shri C.V. Gopinath will bring out audio-visual presentations on all our pilgrim centers." – H.D. Deve Gowda, Former Prime Minister of India

30. "Shri. C.V. Gopinath has taken us through a virtual journey to the abode of Shiva and the Vedic renditions are par excellence" – B.L. Joshi, Honbl'e Lt. Governor of Delhi.

Dear Sir,

I am writing this to forward the nomination of Shri C.V. Gopinath, Dy. Director General in the Department of Telecommunications, for the award of Karnataka Rajyothsava Awards 2002.

Shri Gopinath, a Telecommunication Engineer and a Post-Graduate in Business Management is also a Vedic Scholar and a connoisseur of the Cultural Heritage of Karnataka.

I happened to be present in one of the occasions, wherein a film of Shri C.V. Gopinath on Yajurveda titled, "Cosmic Rhythm in Divine Abodes" was released in India Habitat Centre, New Delhi. Shri C.V. Gopinath's audio-visual presentations on Himalayas in Vedic Concepts, is something very rare to see. The spiritual fervour that he creates and above all his passion to tell people about Himalayas and its Vedic culture are very impressive. His narration and interluding references to Karnataka culture and the Vedic practices and its roots in Karnataka should make one proud that he belongs to State of Karnataka, though he has been a resident of Delhi for more than two decades.

I understand that Karnataka Government's Rajyothsava Awards are conferred on eminent persons who bring fame to Karnataka in the form of Karnataka Rajyothsava Awards. This has prompted me, to make a special request to you for consideration of such award to an eminent personality like Shri C.V. Gopinath.

While enclosing a profile and bio-data of Shri C.V. Gopinath, I would request you to consider conferring Karnataka Rajyothsava Award - 2002 on this deserving and highly qualified person from Karnataka.

With regards,

Yours sincerely

Shri C.V. Gopinath is a technocrat and a vedic scholar par excellence. He had made a Audio-visual Presentation at Raj Niwas on 'Pilgrimage to Kailash Mansarovar'. His presentation was marked by impressive visuals of the Himalayas from the foothills of Haridwar and Rishikesh to the mount Kailash. His exposition was laced with spiritual fervor and poetic language. He had cited some of the most beautiful expressions in Sanskrit on Himalayas, annotated from the Vedas, Upanishad, Bhagbat Gita and the Puranic texts. It was truly a pilgrim's progress from mundane concerns of daily life to the level of spiritual bliss. Through his modulated voice and narration of personal experience as that of the other pilgrims, he added to the richness of the spiritual experience. The one and a half hour programme was enjoyed by all the visiting dignitaries who had graced the occasion.

Shri Gopinath has been honoured by various institutions through out the country and his documentary films on 'A Pilgrimage to Kailash Mansarovar', 'Amarnath, the God of Immortality', 'Cosmic Rhythms of Divine abode' have been appreciated all over. His commitment to spread the Indian culture and value system through his documentation and lecture series on various aspects will inspire the youth to inculcate and revive the cultural heritage of Indian civilization. He has rightly been designated by the Hon'ble Governor of Karnataka as the 'Cultural Ambassador of Karnataka'.

I wish him success in his endeavour.

My Dear Gopinath ji,

This is to thank you for the privilege of having attended your audiovisual presentation on the "Kailasa Mansarovara Pilgrimage" on Shivratri Day this year at the Chinmaya Mission Auditorium, New Delhi.

The experience has filled both my wife and me with a immense pleasure. Your artful presentation created a metaworld so impinging, so live, so real to the inner senses that the external world of the receiver is forgotten. As the grandeur of the Himalayas come alive with your profound impromptu elucidation from the scriptures it reveals spontaneity in your presentation and mastery of the subject.

Indeed you are one of the fortunate ones to be gifted by God with eloquent qualities of knowledge and delivery - a combination one seldom encounters among mortals. It works itself to the consciousness of those who share and perceive it. There can be no doubt that your devotional pursuit to promote our heritage and cultural ethos deserves national awareness so that more and more people can experience the real joy. It is very rare that an engineer and technocrat from Govt. of India can take us through such an elevating experience in which the Spirit of India pulsates and make us increasingly proud Indians.

Dated : January 8, 2003.

My first close contact and acquaintance with Shri C.V. Gopinath, Dy. Director General under Ministry of Communications, dates to more than a decade earlier when I first met him as a morning walker in Lodhi Gardens, New Delhi. Ever since it has grown in my estimation as an enduring mark to regard and respect Shri Gopinath for the qualities of head and heart. He is a man of deep religious mind and spiritual bent. His profound knowledge of Hindu scriptures like the Ramayana, Mahabharata, Srimad Bhagwad Geeta and not speak of Vedas and the Upanishads come alive and stand out as remarkable and profound be it with regard to his documentary films, 'A Pilgrimage to Kailasa and Manasarovar', 'Amarnath - the God of Immortality' and 'Cosmic Rhythms in Divine Abodes' or conducting Havans and Pujas with lucid and succinct recitations.

He has denied inertia and staleness which are part of professional hazards while working in Govt. organizations, to grip, him and evolved to keep his abilities in tact to use his time and creative energies in the best possible manner by reviving appreciation of Indian culture roots through his excellent and highly enlightening lecture talks and audio-visual presentations. He is a gifted speaker and enthralls his audience. He teaches small children recitations from the Bhagwad Geeta and Puranic themes that testify his deep commitment to promote and inculcate the values of Indian culture ethos. His profound understanding for inter-religious nuances have earned him many friends of all faiths.

As a member of our Thakur Dwara Trust, he has always shown the zeal and zest to give his helping hand to render exemplary social service which bear even my personal knowledge when he accompanied me to earthquake ravaged Gujarat in 2000.

As a man, Shri Gopinath is devoid of many weaknesses which beset human mind and with his honest and upright devotion to promote traditional Indian values, I am sure he shall always bring dignity to all those who may come in his contact and as well earn him their respect.

Respected Sir,

We, the staff of Lilavati Hospital & Research Centre would never forget 10th June 2003 afternoon, the day your Audio-visual Presentation was done.

We got a real-life experience of the Topography and Conditions of Kailasa and Manasarovar. Through 90 minutes, you took us to dizzying heights of divine ecstasy and pure mental pleasure. Your recitation in Sanskrit was a joy for our ears.

The audio-visual presentation left a lasting impression in the minds of the viewers. We were thoroughly rejuvenated by the whole experience and look forward to many more soul searching sessions in the future.

On behalf of the staff of Lilavati Hospital & Research Centre, I, Prakash B. Mhatre, am sending this letter as a token of appreciation for your endeavour.

Looking forward to meeting you in person.

Thanking you,

Dear Shri Gopinath:

I was fortunate to listen to your lecture on "Kailash Manasarovar Yatra" that you gave at our Senior Staff Club on August 9, 2003. The audio-visual presentation was so realistic that all of us felt that we ourselves have undertaken the yatra. It was truly a divine experience and we are all thankful to you for giving this lecture. I do hope that we will get opportunities in future to listen to you on other topics of interest. Once again on behalf of the Institute community I would like to thank you for your excellent presentation. We would all like to wish you the best in life.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Shri Gopinath,

I write this on behalf of my colleagues in UNDP-India to thank you for the audio visual treat on "Journey to Kailasa Manasarovar" yesterday in UNDP premises.

For all of us it was truly a pilgrimage. Your rendition of the Vedas (from Thaitiriyopanishad, Mundakopanishad, Kenopanishad, Sri Rudram, Chamakam, Mahanyasam, different Sookthams, and slokas on Ganapathy, Mahishasuramarthini, Parvathi/Parameshwar, Maha Vishnu, Bramha and Lakshmi) along with the slide show made that journey yet more meaningful. Like a consummate tour-guide, your enunciation of the journey and the rich symbolisms underlying our scriptures was simply outstanding!

Most of us have always dreamt about going to Kailash Manasarovar, without much knowledge about what we would find there. Your presentation was extremely informative and educative...we were awe-struck by the beauty and challenges of the journey...and the exposure only made our resolve even greater to undertake the yatra ourselves!!!

Thank you once again for very productive and purposeful 90 minutes with you yesterday...although we spent the time inside a dark room, it was possible to feel a strange light beginning to glimmer inside the inner self...our deep gratitude to you for enabling us to undergo such a moving and enlightening experience!!!

With deep regards from all of us,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Shri Gopinath,

I have seen a number of films on Kailash Mansarovar but the one done by you is the best even on seeing a small part of it. As I became occupied with Respected Swami Gahananandaji, I could not see the total film. I believe it is being shown again in Ramakrishna Mission, Delhi. I will be looking forward to see the entire film.

Thank you for remembering me.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Shri Gopinath Ji,

You would be surprised to receive this letter from a stranger like me. I am prompted to write this to you to express my appreciation of the commentary punctuated by recitation of the scriptures sanctifying the atmosphere in the entire duration of the video presentation of the Kailasa and the Mansarovar yatra. It was a life time experience for me to watch the video luminated by your wonderful presentation. My only feeling is that such events should be more frequent so that our younger generation which is fast drifting away from its moorings is brought back to them.

I admire your phenomenal memory--the way you were coming out with verse after verse. You had transformed the Stein Hall at the Habitat Centre on 8th March, 2005 into a holy place. According to the great poet Kalidasa "that place is holy which is graced with the presence of worthy people".

Dated 7.8.2001

I had the privilege of viewing the video-cassette of Shri Gopinath's pilgrimage to the Kailash Parbat. The exhibition of his trek to Kailash Parbat along with his group was throughout accompanied by his commentary on it, interspersed with Slokas in Sanskrit which were in turn translated and explained by him in lucid English. Throughout the viewing, we forgot the world around us and were so engrossed that we did not know when the time passed. It was an elevating experience and we hoped it had lasted longer. Not only there was no moment of boring but each moment was contributing to our spiritual bliss. The cassette with Shri Gopinath's lucid and spiritually lifting commentary on it has to be viewed personally to experience its effect on oneself. Its description even in the best of language cannot recreate the other worldly experience which it brings. I wish Shri Gopinath holds such shows very often and gives the benefit of similar experience to as many people as he can.

AN APPRECIATION

Shri C.V. Gopinath, Deputy Director General (Telegraph Services) under Ministry of Communications, New Delhi, made an exhilarating Audio Visual Presenting at the Banquet Hall, Raj Bhavan, Bangalore on the evening of 19th February 2003. The theme of presentation - "Himalayas in Vedic concepts through a Journey to Kailasa and Manasarovara" was very well documented from the perspective of vedas and upanishads. Nearly 400 beautiful pictures of Himalayas presented enroute to Kailasa were captivating. The lucid language of presentation, the spiritual fervour and the extraordinary passion, Shri Gopinath has for the Mountains made one feel amongst the audience that he or she was travelling and trekking the Mountain Path. The Saswara Vedic recitations rendered with sonorous voice was a value addition. The spiritual insight, narration of personal experiences the travails and bliss experienced by the pilgrims, brought out, giving references to mundane things on the physical plane on one hand and relating places and events to Upanishads and Puranas, on the other hand was a virtual Journey to one and all who were present. The two hours programme was enjoyed by some Ministers, senior officers and other dignitaries.

Shri C.V. Gopinath, with his erudite scholarship and devotion to revive roots of our great cultural heritage is a natural cultural ambassador of Karnataka. I wish he should make more and more presentations to reach out to all.

I wish him all the best in his endeavour.

Dear Sir Gopinathji Namakkara,

This is just to say thank you for the wonderful talk you gave complimenting the visual images of pilgrimage to Manasarovar and Kailash.

Your knowledge of our Vedas and tradition added to the already beautiful visual treat of the whole event. Your explanation were not only very informative but were spiritually stimulating.

I would like to thank you and through you the ICCR for making it possible for us to have this unique event.

Please convey my Namaskars to Sri Pavan Varma, Director General, Indian Council of Cultural Relations.

With warm good wishes,

giving Nandakumar.

It is a privilege to refer to the outstanding work done by Shri C.V. Gopinath, a reputed Vedic Scholar (and a senior Technocrat in the Union Department of Telecommunications) with whom the undersigned has had the opportunity to be associated for the last several years.

Shri Gopinath's zeal and dedication in endeavouring to inform the public at large in respect of the country's great cultural heritage and his commitment towards imparting the teachings of the holy Bhagwad Gita (and Vedic recitations), in organizing Sanskrit conversational classes, as also his innovative communication skills in making Documentary Films, especially from the Vedic perspective, can essentially be understood through interaction with him. His Audio-Visual Presentation on the 'Himalayas in Vedic Concepts' has like drawn the animated interest and attention of eminent intellectuals and the common man for a virtual journey to the abode of Lord Shiva viz. Kailasa and Manasaravara. Shri Gopinath's Lecture Series on 'Globalization and Culture', 'Discerning the Philosophy of Sound through Omkar', 'Fighting Terrorism through Dharma', 'Krishna in Mahabharata' and 'Managerial Strategies vis-a-vis Ancient Wisdom' have also been highly acclaimed by respected personalities, both national and international.

I feel honoured in wishing Shri Gopinath every success in his selfless devotion to the service of the Almighty.

March 30, 2005

I have been privileged to Shri. C. V. Gopinath, former Senior Deputy Director, General and Ex-Officio Additional Secretary to Government of India to see his work on heritage documentaries, especially on Kailash and Manassarovar. To see his Audio-Visual presentation on "Pilgrimage to Kailash and Manassarovar" is to experience the quintessential message of India and its sacred heritage. To hear him recite hymns and verses in Sanskrit is to experience the richness of Sanskrit as a language and to enter into the spirit of India and its trackless antiquity. There is a world of beauty and grace, which unfolds itself in C.V.Gopinath's presentation. The timber and melody of his rich voice has a cadence. He weaves a tapestry of ethereal beauty and embraces his audience in the eternal spirit of India. At every step in the Audio-Visual Pilgrimage with Shri C.V.Gopinath, we find the truth, the good, the beautiful and the splendor created by the Man and Nature.

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru's Discovery of India left a lasting impression on my generation. The Audio-Visual presentation on "pilgrimage to Kailas and Manasarovar of C.V.Gopinath is somewhat like Panditji's Discovery of India.

I congratulate Shri. C.V.Gopinath for achieving a very high standard of excellence in his presentation of an incomparably beautiful and captivating pilgrimage of the spirit.

Yours Sincerely,

(L. M. Singh)

TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

I am delighted to record my appreciation of the efforts and attempts of Shri C.V.Gopinath, Deputy Director General in the Ministry of Communications, particularly in the field of Philosophy, Indian Culture and Religious Tourism. In particular I was tremendously impressed by his audio visual presentation on his trip to Mansarovar and Kailash which I had an occasion to observe recently at Chinmaya Mission Auditorium, Lodi Road, New Delhi. His knowledge of philosophy and vedic traditions in the course of his presentation was indeed very very impressive.

2. The pilgrimage presentation was a real yatra for everyone who was present in the auditorium. Himalayas in vedic concepts came up so well through his elaborate references while one enjoyed his recitations from Upanishads. He has a passion to project our cultural routes to common man, through his simple narrations. Above all his experiences which are very human adds flavour to the presentation.

3. I sincerely compliment and congratulate him on his efforts in this regard and wish him success in his future endeavours.
